FACULTY OF INDIGENOUS MEDICINE, UNIVERSITY OF COLOMBO

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN KAUMARABHRITYA IN STREE SWASTHASANRAKSHANA (WOMEN'S HEALTH DEVELOPMENT THROUGH AYURVEDA)

The Postgraduate Diploma in Women's Health Development through Ayurveda offered by the Faculty of Indigenous Medicine is a specialized academic programme designed to enhance professional knowledge and skills in women's health using both traditional and modern medical perspectives. The Postgraduate Diploma focuses on the comprehensive well-being of women across all life stages—from fertility and pregnancy to postpartum care and menopause.

It also emphasizes practical training, research, and patient-centered care, aiming to develop competent healthcare professionals capable of promoting women's health, disease prevention, and community wellbeing.

Overall, this postgraduate diploma provides an opportunity for medical graduates to advance their clinical expertise, engage in research, and contribute effectively to women's health development at both national and global levels.

The course is conducted by the Postgraduate and Mid-career Development Unit, which collaborates with the Departments of Ayurveda Surgery, ENT, Ophthalmology, and Gynecology, Obstetrics, and Pediatrics.
